THE INSIDE STORY

EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear readers,

Welcome to our Brand new Zoryn! magazine.

It has been a journey through the wilderness, over mountains and reaching this beautiful blissful destination to get to this publication. We are most grateful for every step, every lesson and beyond.

We asked Zoryn, the namesake of this publication a few questions:

How do you feel about the magazine names, namely Zoryn! and Zazaa!, being your name and derivatives thereof?

It is very meaningful and such an honor. It is definitely a special way for someone to tell you they love you. Zazaa is a nickname given to me by my photographer, makeup artist and close friend, Bia. I love the fact that the magazine is named after such a special result of friendship. My name being on a magazine is beautifully impactful, allowing me to leave behind a legacy. A legacy I hope brings other people as much joy and hope for the future, especially in their careers.

Your thoughts on the industry:

The industry has always been a tough one to be in. It's a lot of rejection and frustration. It can cause self doubt and insecurities. However, it can also be so glorious to be a part of something so creative and expressive. To be part of something bigger than one's self. It is a wonderful place to express yourself and build confidence. There are some magical souls to be found in this industry. I'm lucky to say, I've met quite a few.

Your journey as a model:

My first job was when I was around 3 years old. My journey has been a long one, that's for sure.

The earliest one I can remember properly is when I came up with a concept for a short film which was brought to life at the age of 12. Something I've learnt on set is to work hard, be kind and be patient. Being kind will take you further than you can imagine.

Building relationships in the industry is very important. Never be negative or passive on set. I learnt to be expressive and become confident in front of the camera. Playing around with poses is a great way to improve.

Advice:

Yes, the modeling environment may have its negatives but once you push through and find your place, it's going to be one of the best aspects of your life. In my current position I have surrounded myself with people I love working with and I look forward to whatever comes next. So no matter how challenging it may be, just push through and you will see the rewards. You may come across people who will push you down and make you feel small, but just ignore them because the only opinion of you that matters is your own.

One piece of advice that is very important is that you must work hard and always strive to be the best. Remember there will always be someone prettier or smarter but you can work harder than them, so be kind, strive for what you believe in, work as hard as you can and you will see how big of an impression it will leave.

Love, Zoryn.

We hope you enjoy the beautiful submissions as much as we do.

It is a privilege to serve you.

Yours in Creativity, Martéz & Hannelie

A DAY ON PARADISE ISLAND

When Rose Molteno created these angelic pieces, she made sure they were designed for angelic women.

As a photographer I can say, never have I ever seen such prestige hands-on detail and consideration for every woman's body.

'Molteno Couture' truly is an array of awe-inspiring designs as they appear, yet exceed one's awe once a woman is actually in it.

Rose chose her three models with ease, and as Raeesah Hendricks, Jodi Fredericks and Uma Schreuder simply slid into them... three goddesses suddenly appeared before me.

Thanks to 'Cape Diamonds' we could decorate our beauties in delicate, shiny glam, that would make any star proud. Each a unique persona. Each a unique charm and wit.

Our girls all had a certain aura... the aura of confidence as well as innocence.

As talented Raeesah completed Jodi's perfect brides' makeup as well as her own, Uma sat patiently while I completed hers. Everything that happened after this combination of magical metamorphosis can only best be described as soft, spring-like beauty at its purest.

We had the pleasure of capturing stunning moments on the impeccable 'La Roche Estate' wedding island, as the golden sun complimented the model's mood, and the glitz of the surrounding water, set the scene. The air was fresh and clean, we even had little rainbows appear throughout the glass of the big chapel windows.

As the day came to an end, I think I can speak for all of us when I say, "This was a flawless successful photoshoot, of a time well spent with incredible women."

Thank you, team, you were spectacular!
